

"The Ottawa Spotlight"

By Wilfrid Lockington
Ottawa, March 17.—The trade agreement with the United States was formally approved by parliament in a recorded vote. Liberals, C. P. F., Social Credit, Reconstruction and Mrs. Macphail voted for the United States agreement, only the forces of Mr. H. B. Bennett opposed it. The vote was 175 to 38, one of the largest majorities ever recorded in the Canadian parliament on an issue so momentous and so contentious as between the major parties. The House proceeded at once to deal with the items of the treaty one by one. This uncovered a good deal of party feeling and cleavage in attitude towards tariffs, and will probably take some time.

Pensions for the Blind
Aside from these trade matters, which monopolized the time of our legislators last week, there were two or three interesting diversions. The last complete party member's vote was about equally divided between a debate on pensions for the blind and a request for special recognition of the problem of the blind.

First of these, sponsored by Dr. Thomas Donnelly, Liberal member for Wood Mountain, Sask., asked the government to consider the problem of the blind in Canada (Maximum $20 per month) to all blind persons at forty years of age.

The second, sponsored by Hon. J. H. Macphail, Liberal member for Toronto, urged the creation of a commission to deal specially with education and training for the youth of today.

Canada and Empire Defence
The grave crisis in Europe attracted by Germany, the subject of discussion in the House of Commons, was reflected by a couple of exchanges in the House of Commons. In reply to a question levied by J. H. Macphail, C. P. F. leader, the Prime Minister explained Canada's position in regard to Empire Defence. He stated and reiterated that Canada was not committed in any way to an Empire defence policy, nor was she signatory to the Locarno Pact, nor was she, as Mr. H. B. Macphail had said—originated through the League of Nations because of any action of the Mother country. Replying to another question by Mr. Bennett, the prime minister said that of course there were obligations by Canada under the covenant of the League. So far, he thought these had been honored to the letter; any further obligations under the League covenant would be carefully considered as they arose.

Conscription of Germans
Mr. Woolworth objected to a proposition issued by the government, instituting conscription for Germany, protesting that all Germans in Canada they were subject to conscription, and warning them that if they refused to serve, they could be punished. The C. P. F. leader wanted to know how a German conscription could come into existence in Germany, and he pointed out that the conscription was not a conscription of Germans.

The Soybean
The House—in a committee of ways and means over the soybean trade agreement—had a couple of warm sessions over the important question of the soybean. It appears that the soybean has been the most remarkable substance known for the number of derivatives and by-products. Everything from synthetic milk, it seems, may be made from it, and when the bean is "puffed" and roasted, it is superior in flavour to the finest peanuts. It is no wonder the House grew interested. It further transpired that the present acreage of soybeans in Canada was about 10,000, of which about half was in the south-east, and the remainder was in the north. A plant at Chatham has been extracting oil, otherwise processing the soybean, and a plant at Stratford is to be going, and one is under way at Mount.

Several Conservative members were much distressed because the soybean which formerly was protected at a rate of two cents per pound, in some to come from the United States. Mr. Bennett said in the briefing of the free trade for three years, the end of its immediate possibility of the starting of a soybean industry in Canada. On the other side, it was stated that the prospects of any considerable acreage in Canada was very slight and in view of the importance of the article, it was well to have free access to it.

M. D. OF BOW VALLEY

REGULAR MEETING

The first meeting of the council of 1936-37 of the M. D. of Bow Valley No. 219 was held in the Municipal Office, Strathmore, on Friday the 13th, day of March 1936 commencing at 10:30 a.m. All members of the council were present.

Mr. H. Groves was elected Reeve of the Council for the council year, and Mr. A. Phillips was elected Deputy Reeve of the council for the first six months of the council year.

The council recommended that the council for residence of the Municipality to obtain proper poison of the same name as in 1935 from Mr. A. Collier, Regina, Strathmore, on the same conditions as in 1935. One can be allowed to a quarter section and the resident of the district is permitted to purchase it at a reduced price the same as in 1935. The poison supplied by Mr. Lambert last year was found to be very good and the council has no hesitation in recommending residents to purchase it for use on their farms as early as possible and so save the maximum kiln of popovers this year.

The council recommended to local school boards the advisability of setting up a fund for the purpose of having the children in their respective schools protected against snail infestation. This recommendation is passed on to school boards on account of the apparent prevalence of the disease in the immediate neighbourhood.

The same crew were engaged for the grading operations of the Municipality in 1936 as in 1935.

Contract with the Strathmore Standard was renewed for the ensuing year so that they will again be getting the paper as in the year just passed.

Grants to Strathmore School Pair and Langdon School Pair together with grant to the Salvation Army were authorized by the council.

The school legislations as follows were accepted by the Council for the school districts shown for the year 1935-36: (1) Standard 1000; (2) Standard 1000; (3) Standard 1000; (4) Standard 1000; (5) Standard 1000; CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

At all Christian Science Churches next Sunday, the subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Matter." The following is one of the Scriptural quotations contained in the Lesson-Sermon: "And he said unto her, Woe to thee, for thou hast made these things go in peace, and be whole of the flesh" (Mark 5:31). One of the correct active passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is as follows (page 285): "As mortals reach through knowledge of Christian Science, a higher sense, they will seek to learn, not from matter, but from the divine Principle, God, how to demonstrate the Christ. Truth is the healing and saving power."

WHY GROW MULES

Mares are much more likely to catch from a jack than from a horse. Mules will begin work much younger, do more work on less feed and live twice as long, hence sell for more money.

More mules were shipped out of the Montreal harbor last year than have been grown in Canada during the past ten years, and the present demand for all classes, especially the light mules for the cotton trade, will continue for years to come because of the scarcity of both mares and jacks.

I have one of the best jacks ever imported and breed mares without any service fees. $15.00 paid when the mule arrives, or every third mule at weaning time covers my fees.

I will travel him in any community where sufficient mares are available.

Write now if interested.

BRUTAL INSANITY IN THE LEADERS OF THE NATIONS

The World has not recovered from the suffering and loss of the last war. The ominous threat of another outbreak is sounding too strongly through the voices of doom and disaster and the country's leaders play with human lives with no more thought than a boy with marbles.

Human lives, men and women, boys and girls are the pawns—Why cannot we all live in indignation and refuse utterly to take part in any war to satisfy the greed, and heartless ambition of such leaders as would force this holocaust on the world?

The following taken from the Legionary gives a vivid picture of the suffering and legions of War.

I am WAR... Spurred from countless generations of Suspicion, of Avarice and of Lust I sing and dance, to music of my own. The moans of mangled bodies, and the wailing of women and hungry children.

Your best I take. The strong and stalwart, and leave the lesser. I'll to breed new generations for my pleasures.
From the fresh clear eyes of youth, I tear illusion, and leave behind the clouds of care and misery.
My playthings, I toss upon the sweet clean earth, whence birds and trees and flowers have fled at my approach, to be companions to the hungry rats, yellow toothed and fat, battening on the harvest of battle.
In my dripping, bloody fingers I squeeze your souls and twist your Godly spirits to undoing of your Follies, and leave you to bewilderment and Doom.
Widows and orphans, twisted minds and bodies are my gifts to you, survivors of my devastating shame. And yet you come to me, again and yet again.
Fools! I! I am WAR...

Weekly Edmonton Letter

By T. B. Windsor

Edmonton, Alberta—Among a number of minor happenings there, outstanding events feature the news of the past week in the Alberta legislature. The introduction of the provincial fiscal bill, the publication of the government's Master Code, by Hon. E. Manning, minister of trade and commerce, and the continued uncertainty regarding the result of the Alberta Douglas correspondence.

Since the fiscal bill moved to the legislature, following its introduction by Mr. Manning, on Friday, there has been considerable criticism of its terms, in opposition quarters as well as among the public generally, although this criticism has not been in any sense a reality among supporters of the administration in the assembly. The chief objection to the act is its provision for a two-thirds majority of electors' names legally on the petition for recall before it can become effective. That clause, opponents say, makes the whole act ineffective, especially in ridings where there are two or more members elected.

In defence of the bill it is pointed out by Social Crediters that to make the recall of a member too easy would give a measure of instability to the legislature that would be fatal. Recall action would be taken on all sorts of trifling grounds, and there would be no end of trouble under a law that made it possible for a comparatively small number of disgruntled electors to institute new proceedings on insignificant and purely party grounds.

The general master code, which was released Friday by Mr. Manning, is a document of far-reaching importance to the people of Alberta. It has aroused wide interest both within and without the province. Fixing of maximum and minimum prices is provided for in the code, which is binding on all names of retail trade in Alberta under the Trade and Industry act, and it will become effective on April 1st this year.

Mr. Manning said regulations under the code will provide for a licensing fee of not more than $2, with $1 for each additional license. No additional license will be required in a community where there are only general stores. A general store license will cover all classifications of merchandise.

Mr. Manning explains the spirit of the code is to establish fundamental principles in business, fair sales to buyer and seller. It provides for fair competition in business. There are 42 general classifications of business in the master code.

The situation with regard to Major Douglas and the premier of Alberta has stirred up wide zones of interest and comment on both sides of the Atlantic ocean. The present status of the discussions is not altogether to the advantage of the London economist. There is a growing impression in Edmonton as well as abroad that Douglas is hesitating on his proposals. Certainly he has no complaint against the Alberta Social Credit government that will stand the light of investigation for long. Premier Aberhart has established his reputation as one of the most patient politicians on record as a result.

The major has asserted in later views given to newspaper men in London that the Alberta government is not sincere in his plans to institute Social Credit, and yet Premier Aberhart has repeatedly urged Major Douglas to come here and establish his own system of Social Credit. The premier has done with regard to the independence of the province and its most financial problems has nothing to say to the Social Credit system of Social Credit, and could in no way under the work of Major Douglas in advancing the administration.

Up to two times as two weeks, Premier Aberhart had not received any reply to his last telegram to Major Douglas, and the present status of the controversy seems to be that the major is not going to come to Alberta at least not for some time, and that unless another change in his policy can be found to take the place of the major, he will take the initiative himself and go ahead with the plan with one adviser from among other Social Credit sources.

There is a growing body of his followers who favor such action, by the premier, and the members of the legislature are said to be solidly behind the premier in whatever step he may decide to adopt. There is no question as to the premier's ability.

Premier Aberhart stated after the party caucus Thursday night that the Social Credit members were anxious that Major Douglas and all Social Crediters all over the world should know that the Alberta government is anxious to have the major come here and advise the government, and that nothing whatever will be done to hinder him from instituting his own plan for the province.

In the meantime the provincial budget passed by the assembly, following defeat of G. Van Allen's non-confidence motion, will stand, despite the Douglas demand that only an interim budget be passed. The major was given to understand that Social Crediters in the legislature considered it his duty to come and implement his own proposals for the province.

Premier Aberhart, Friday, denied emphatically a statement made by a Toronto writer that he had gone east last autumn in order to ask the bankers to help him in putting Social Credit into effect.

He also said it was possible that a bill will be introduced during the present session to make it compulsory to accept reduced interest rates in the refunding of the province's $160,000,000 debt. But it is probable it may not be possible to introduce that bill until the session resumes after an adjournment to enable the cabinet to make refinancing arrangements if possible in the east.

Estimates amounting to $13,258,861 were passed by the legislature for expenditures during the 1935-36 year. These are still some estimates to be disposed of but they will likely be cleared away early in the week.

Condemned by protests of Liberal members the bill to provide relief for successive farmers was passed by the assembly on Monday night, following Friday. Liberals opposed it on the ground that it might endanger provincial credit by giving priority to more charges of first mortgages on land.

Strong appeals for more bridges and roads in the north country came from both government and opposition sides Thursday. W. J. Lamplsey, Peace River Social Credit member, and A. J. Givens, Liberal, Groulx, championed the needs of the north. Power equipment for ferries was also urged for the Peace River district.

It is now likely the house may adjourn to seashore in the fall or late summer.

BAINTREE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Port was the scene of a delightful gathering last Friday. Some seventy friends and neighbors gathered to spend a social evening with Mr. and Mrs. Port before they take up their new home in the United States. The early part of the evening was spent playing bridge and when Mr. and Mrs. Port in a very capable manner expressed the sincere friendship held by the host district toward Mr. and Mrs. Port. On the occasion of your departure from the district, where you have resided for many years, we the undersigned, desire to express our sentiments in the following manner. In everything pertaining to the welfare of the district, you will have often shown more concern than yourselves. In your untiringness with your fellow men and women, all your words and deeds have been prompted by that noble spirit which

TUDOR

Mrs. Bert Horton and daughter Shirley, have just recently returned from an extended visit with relatives near Toronto. Mrs. Horton proved a very enjoyable visit.

We understand Mr. H. C. Best, who has been residing in Calgary, will return to the farm for the summer months.

The postponed Landover S. D. No. 100 Annual Meeting will be held in Landover School House on Saturday, March 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow and Lute have returned to their home in Strathmore following the winter in Calgary.

The Highway South of Rockyford, except for a few low spots, is in excellent condition. There is no doubt that the removal of the snow proved a great advantage in the road drying up rapidly. Emil (Cannest) deserves a great deal of credit for designing, constructing and operating the snow plow in an effort to keep the main highways open this winter.

COMING EVENT

The Dramatic Club will meet Tuesday, March 24th at 8 p.m. in the Town Hall.

Inspired immortal Lincoln to say, "with malice towards none, with charity to all." As friends and neighbors we have long observed these noble feelings of kind hearts and generous minds, and we are gathered to night for a joyful purpose. Firstly, to express our heartfelt regret at your departure and to wish you many years of peace and happiness in your new sphere of life. Secondly to present each of you with a token of our esteem and regard. We ask you to accept these gifts, not for any monetary value they may possess, but the warm sentiment behind the giving. May they long remind you of the many devoted friends you are leaving behind on the prairies of the west."

Mr. Longbottom then presented the couple with a club bag and a Worthington.

Mrs. C. Kimmitt in behalf of the neighbors from the west presented a down comforter.

Miss E. Kimmitt in behalf of the girls softball club presented Mr. and Mrs. Porteous with a table cloth and serviette.

Mr. Porteous then in a few words expressed his sincere thanks and appreciation of this friendship and neighborly spirit.

Mr. and Mrs. Porteous are old residents of Baintree. Mr. Porteous, winning smile and Mrs. Porteous' kindlyness will be greatly missed. They are true friends and good neighbors. We know they will soon form as many close friends in their new home in Hampshire as they leave here.
